2. Para 2 of the draft rules provides for the sanction of the Deputy Commissioner being obtained for disposal or lease of immoveable property belonging to village panchayets when the market value of such property exceeds Rs. 500/-. The value of the property for disposal of lease requiring sanction of the Deputy Commissioner, may be fixed over Rs. 200/-, the Amildar being authorised to deal with cases below that amount.

3. In para 3 relating to the making of grant in aid to indigenous medical institutions, the village panchayets are empowered to make grants to such institutions upto Rs. 100/- per year in any case. The rules may be made clear that grants should be made only to such an institution as is efficiently managed and satisfies the rules that may be framed by Government for its proper working.

4. In para 12 relating to the leave to the Secretary and chairman of village Panchayets, provision may be made for all leave vacancies short or long, being reported to the Deputy Commissioner through the Amildar, as ~~otherwise~~ it will conduce to stricter discipline and for proper arrangements being made for the charge of the
